

The Book of True Life – Introduction

1. General Information

The current teachings in German are a faithful translation of the original text of the Book of True Life in 12 volumes and proclaim divine revelations. It is nothing less than the Second Coming of the Lord as the Holy Spirit. Through specially selected and prepared tools (the word in the Spanish text is: "spokesman" as well as singers, promoters of words) Christ gave us great truths to explain to us the meaning of our earthly life, to reveal unknown or not understood secrets of the Spirit, and to give us comfort, strength and guidance in the midst of a growing chaos, which brings many tribulations, to humanity in order to purify it. It is the eternal and constant message of God to His children: in the First Time through Moses and the prophets, and in the Second Time through Jesus and his disciples. If the message seems new to us in the present Third Time, it is because many of the words of the First and Second Times that are not understood are explained, and because the Lord gives us more spiritual insights that He could not give us at that time. ("I have a lot to tell you, but you can't understand it now." Joh. 16,12.)

Each teaching is divided into many verses and each verse is numbered; this not only serves as a precise reference to a passage of the text, but also aims to show that it is not an easy reading; rather, the content must be read, studied and established with the senses collected and carefully. After, however, the most important thing should follow - the execution, the fact.

The attentive reader will notice that many spiritual thoughts and teachings are repeated more often, although mostly in different words or from different points of view. There are several reasons for this: firstly, the teachings have been given for many years in dozens of meeting places. Secondly, there were several mediators of words, and depending on the spiritual maturity of the instrument, the Word of God could manifest itself. And finally, the teachings were not held in closed circles, but in public in front of a simple audience, so that newcomers could come again and again, so that the Lord would have to repeat the basics for the same in His Word.

Today we should not run into repetitions, but they should give us the opportunity to imprint the divine thoughts within us. And besides, the repetitions confirm that the teachings come from God; because despite the multitude of places in which they were given and the many mediators of words, the unity of the Word is manifested.

It would be disastrous for all humanity if, due to materially misunderstood prophecies — like the Jewish people almost 2000 years ago - they had to overcome and remain deaf to the voice of their Lord, who in this unmistakable and genuine word of God addresses every human spirit and calls him to contemplate, convert and spiritualize. The same voice will one day ask each of us to tell us how far he has fulfilled his kind warnings and instructions.

In the work "Book of the True Life" the main theme is the spirit, which is why this word is very often found in various connections. What does "spirit" mean? - In today's common use of language and dictionaries, the word "spirit" is used in the sense of the ability to think, that is: mind, intellect, idea, wisdom, etc. — In these teachings, as in the Bible, the word spirit has a different meaning, and Jesus has made it clear when he said: "God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth" (Joh. 4, 24). The eternal elemental power, God, is pure spirit, without form, but this does not exclude that He reveals Himself to His children in special cases also in human form, as a Father. The most essential quality of God is love, and for this love he created other spiritual beings out of himself in order to be able to give them His love. These spirits, sparks of the Spirit of God and, to a limited extent, with the same qualities as God, filled the infinite space until they separated from God because of their arrogance and disobedience, and were buried in a material body in order to return home. The essential part of man is therefore his spirit, the spark of the Divine Spirit in him. Briefly summarized below:

Spirit of God = love, wisdom and power.

Human spirit = Spiritual spark of God in man.

Spirits = spirits-primordial angels and human beings spiritual, are still in the material (incarnate) body or out of it (disembodied).

The divine revelations took place in Mexico in Spanish. The translation into German was done with great care, so that the spiritual sense was reproduced in any case. Translators have largely adhered to the original text in the formation of words and sentences, so sometimes some unusual expressions and sentence structures arose. Only in relatively few cases did we have to choose a freer translation in order to find a pleasant form of expression in German, but the spiritual sense always remained faithful.

In order to study the teachings of Christ in the "Book of True Life", it is absolutely not necessary to read the volumes in turn, that is, to start with Volume I, because not only each of the volumes, but also each teaching contains a closed and understandable discourse on the teaching of Christ.

Each of these teachings represents a harmonious unity of divine teachings, addressed to listeners in Mexico of the time, but — as has been stressed several times in it — they are a legacy for all humanity today and for future generations.

It is not the letter of the divine word, but its deep and inner meaning that elevates the spirit of man and is food and balm for his hungry soul. At the same time, it serves as a guide for their behavior in everyday life.

Listening to the divine word is the first step on the path to perfection. It awakens in us the desire to internalize what we hear and apply it in our daily lives in order to fulfill the divine commandment that Jesus gave us 2000 years ago: "Love God above all things and your neighbor as yourself." This is the true worship service that leads to inner peace and therefore peace in the world.

Since a single earthly life in general is not enough to become "as perfect as our heavenly Father", we have been given the possibility to gradually unfold our soul and to amend through the law of reincarnation — a law of divine love, mercy and justice.

In many teachings, the Divine Spirit warns us how important true spiritual prayer is for us to draw closer and closer to God, to communicate with Him in the end from spirit to spirit, and also to put everything in His hand in our daily life.

In the Second Time the Divine Spirit taught us the Lord's prayer through the mouth of Jesus. Today, in the Third Season, God recommends an even shorter prayer that contains everything that we don't even have to say out loud, but that we can direct to our Heavenly Father deeply felt in our hearts as an inner longing: "Lord, your will be done to me."

The Commission, entrusted with the compilation of this compilation, dedicates this work of revelation in the name of the Lord to all people of good will in the world, inspired by the desire to achieve the elevation of their spirits by studying the divine revelations and exercising the teachings of the Divine Master. Everyone who feels in himself the desire to live the teachings of the Sixth Seal, received in this age of the Spirit of Truth, must taste to the last drop the spiritual sense contained in this work. Then a plea will come out of his heart to all mankind, and a prayer will sound the most delicate strings of the human heart.

2. The Need for Divine Revelations

At all times, God has made Himself known to humanity, He has comforted us with His Word, He has given us His commandments and He has transmitted to us teachings about His creation and our existence.

Whenever people in pre-Christian times forgot these divine teachings, God sent His prophets to remind them of His laws.

When men created more than 600 human rules of these Ten Commandments, God sent Jesus, through whose mouth Christ, the Divine Word, proclaimed himself, who summed up the Ten Commandments in a single commandment: "Love God above all things and your neighbor as yourself."

Once again, men forgot this simple and redemptive recommendation of God. Cruel wars and inhuman persecutions to this day are a sad proof of this.

Mixing divine truth with human dogmas, with excessive emphasis on external rites and ceremonies, as well as with false human interpretations of the pure divine word, many people today live in a mode of spiritual slavery.

Therefore, it was and is necessary for God to address humanity again today with illuminating and warning words. This happened for 66 years (1884-1950) in Mexico — in more than a hundred meeting places at the same time, where simple people gathered Sunday by Sunday to hear the uplifting and teaching words of God.

Witnesses of these meetings reported that these divine words flowed like a torrent of crystal-clear water from the mouths of the transmitters, called voice-carriers, for two or three hours without interruption and without the slightest lapse of language. Whoever took the meaning of the divine word with a pure and unprejudiced mind felt the presence of the Lord and the infinite love of the Heavenly Father.

Humanity: I seek your reconciliation. You do not live in my Law; your harmony with your God and with everything created is broken. You do not love each other among brothers, and that is the secret of happiness that Jesus revealed to you. And if you have lost the harmony between one and the other, do you think you can preserve it with the elements of Creation?

The hand of man has unleashed justice on himself; a whirlwind stirs in his brain, a tempest roars in his heart and all this manifests itself also in Nature, its elements are unleashed, the seasons become inclement, plagues appear and multiply. It is that your sins grow producing diseases and foolish and reckless science does not recognize the order of what is arranged by the Creator.

If I only told you, you would not believe it, it is necessary that you feel the result of your works so that you will be disappointed; precisely you are now at that moment of your life, in which you are going to see the result of everything that you have been sowing. (100, 5-7)

People, persevere in my Doctrine and truly I tell you that three generations after yours, the spirit of your descendants will have achieved a great spirituality. Seek true elevation and then all humanity will do it, because your world is not condemned to be eternally a valley of tears, a land of sin, a hell of lust and war. The day of the Lord is already with you, my sword of righteousness will touch perversity. What will happen if I destroy the evil seed, vice and pride, and instead offer protection to the seed of peace, of concord, of regeneration and of true faith in Me? The world will have to be transformed; man will be transformed once his spiritual worship and his life are better. (87, 9)

My Word is poured out inexhaustibly on you. I am the Christ who dwelt among men in the Second Time, and who comes down to you again, to testify of Himself, fulfilling his promise and his word, as at that time I came to confirm by my works the law that the Father dictated to Moses, who did not do his will, nor that of men, but the will of the Eternal, therefore I tell you, if I did not erase what Moses said, neither would I now come to erase what I taught you in Jesus.

I am with you, because I promised and announced this to my disciples, when on a certain occasion, finding myself surrounded by them, they questioned me in this way: Teacher, you have said that you will leave, but that later you will return; tell us, when will this be? I saw that innocence and the desire to know made them search the arcana of their Lord; however, I kindly told them, "Indeed, the day is not far off when I will return among men," giving them to understand that my presence would be in Spirit, and at the same time, letting them know the signs that would announce my upcoming arrival. Those signs would be wars, chaos and great bitterness in all the earth; but truly I tell you, this is how my arrival was at this time, in the midst of chaos. Here I am, humanity, with a message of light and peace for your spirit, from which I am going to make an ark into which all men of faith who want to be saved will penetrate, where humanity can take refuge. This ark will be strong because of the faith, hope and charity of those who follow me and will have a spiritual resemblance to the one entrusted to Noah, when the elements were unleashed.

What time are you in? Analyze and you will realize that I have given you my lesson in three times. The first was the law, the second love and the third, which is the present, corresponds to wisdom.

One Spirit, which is mine, has always been with you; but if I have manifested it under three different phases, think that the forms in which I manifest Myself in all creation are infinite and at the same time perfect.

In the First Time you knew the Father as Judge and Legislator; in the Second Time I made my Word incarnate in Jesus and his word spoke with divine wisdom; Christ is the Word, the same one who said to men. "He who knows the Son knows the Father." Now you are in the Third Time, in which I pour out my wisdom on you.

Fulfilling my promise, I have come in Spirit, on the symbolic cloud that your spirits form when they rise to Me, to build the true temple in the heart of humanity.

When listening to me through these spokespersons, do not think that my Spirit lodges in these small and impure bodies; I have already told you that it is on your spirit that a ray of my light descends, which is divine inspiration, which is wisdom and love. Feel the miracle of this communication, recognizing that through the understanding of these rude creatures, the word springs from their lips that enlightens the ignorant and converts the sinner, making him build in his heart, a dwelling worthy of God, and giving him the key of faith, the one that opens the door of wisdom.

With infinite patience I waited for the time when the development of your spirit would allow you to understand my communication through the understanding of the speaker, as a preparation for the perfect communication between your spirit and mine.

That is the reason why the spokesman pronounces my word without his brain getting tired or his throat getting hoarse; because it is I who moves those lips, to make the call to humanity. I am inviting you to rest under the shade of the tree of life and to eat the fruit of eternal life. (123, 1-10)

3. Historical Development, Translation, Publication

At all times, God has revealed Himself to humanity — in the past and today.

The purest and highest form of communication between God and man is that of spirit to spirit. But since most men were not and are not prepared for this internally, God has taken mediators who revealed His Holy Word to the people in the form of laws, announcements and teachings:

In the First Time by Moses, the Patriarchs and prophets.

In the Second Time by Jesus, his disciples and apostles.

In the Third Time - today - through a crowd of voters during the years 1884 to 1950 in Mexico.

"This is the announced time when I had to speak to humanity and I want you to compile books in fulfillment of my prophecies with these words that I have given you,..." (6,52) The announcements in Mexico were wisely prepared by the hand of God. In 1866, the spirit of the prophet Elijah was revealed for the first time through the mind of Roque Rojas and he said: "I am the prophet Elijah, the one of the transfiguration on Mount Tabor. He made Himself known to those gathered so that the Third Time, the age of the Holy Spirit, could begin. A few years later, after the fellowship had grown and the tools of Christ had been prepared, in 1884, it was revealed for the first time through the human mind of His chosen instrument, Damiana Oviedo.

Sunday after Sunday, ordinary townspeople gathered in simple meeting places to listen for about two hours to the divine message. As mouthpieces God used the numerous spokespersons (prophets of the present time) who made the ray of the divine word audible in an elevated state of mind.

Let the Lord Himself tell us about these extraordinary events:

Do you know about that cloud on which my disciples saw me ascend the last time I manifested myself to them? For indeed it was written that he would come again on the cloud, and I have fulfilled it. On the first of September, 1866, my Spirit came over the symbolic cloud to prepare you to receive the new lesson. Then in 1884, I began to give you my teaching. I did not arrive as a man, but spiritually limited in a ray of light to place it on the human understanding. That is the means chosen by my will to speak to you at this time and I will take into account the faith that you place in this word, because it will not be Moses who guides you through the desert in pursuit of the promised Land, nor Christ made man who makes you hear his word of life as a way of salvation and freedom; it is now the human voice of these creatures that reaches your ears and it is necessary to spiritualize to find the divine essence where I am present, that is why I tell you that it has merit that you believe in this word because it is given through imperfect beings. (236, 50)

According to God's will, the advertisements in Mexico lasted until the end of 1950. These divine revelations, messages or teachings were recorded and recorded in the last ten years before 1950. After 1950, 366 teachings were selected from this huge number of protocols and published in the 12-volume work "Book of True Life".

After 1975, Walter Maier, who had participated in the Sunday meetings from 1943 to 1950, and Traugott Göldenboth translated volume I into volume V into German and published it in Reichl Verlag (Germany). After Walter Maier's death in 2001, Traugott Göldenboth completed volume VI and published it in 2004.

Volumes VII to XII were translated by Traugott Göldenboth and published by the Buchdienst zum Leben (Book Service for Life) in 2014 to 2016.

4. Witness Walter Maier and a Speech by the Lord to 20 Germans

Walter Maier talks about his experiences and activities after his return to Germany:

I was lucky enough to go to Mexico in 1930 to continue my professional training. For many years I have enjoyed the joys of a new world and professional successes. While the great struggle of the nations was unfolding in various theaters of war, I came into contact with the Divine Revelations in the capital of Mexico in 1942 and was immediately attracted to them. However, I began to critically examine the messages until I soon realized that they were true revelations from the Heavenly Father. Then I was an enthusiastic listener and a personal witness to it.

There was a time when we were a group of up to 20 Germans within the Mexican community who listened to the teachings of the Divine Master on Sunday mornings in the middle of the Mexican community. We were known and respected as the "foreigners". Particularly between 1942 and 1945, when the Second World War broke out with its atrocities, we Germans found security and comfort in the Mexican community in the words of Christ. Because the events of the war weighed us all down, and the bitter fate of our distant homeland wounded us. Only God knows how many tears have been shed and how many sincere prayers have come to Him. In these years it happened that on several occasions, but always unexpectedly, the Lord addressed the Germans present directly in the course of his teachings.

He comforted us and exhorted us to pause in prayer and persevere, because when His hour has come, He will end the war, and then — sooner and faster than expected by men — the reconstruction of our homeland will take place. But at the same time, He also exhorted us not to leave arrogantly again, but to put our will under His, because we still have great tasks to fulfill in His work. He also called on the Mexican community that listens attentively not to stand up as judges, because they do not understand the background of the war. These words were a balm for our wounds, because as Germans we suffer the worldwide accusation of being the main culprits of the war.

It has its profound meaning that in the Mexican congregations of spiritual doctrine almost only the Germans listened as foreigners. The reason is that according to the statement of the Divine Master, there is a great "seed of Israel" in the German people, that is, that these human souls were incarnated in the Jewish people a long time ago. Only God knows these beings who are scattered among all peoples and religions, and in this Third Time he collects them spiritually and forms with them his spiritual Israel.

Next, Christ's address to the Germans during the teaching of May 6, 1945, will be pointed out to a wider circle of readers:

Blessed are you, my beloved children, I receive you. Behold, O blessed people of Israel, in the midst of you are these my beloved children. I want them to find in your chest the warmth of my Spirit, respect and brotherly love. I want them to be allowed to nest close, very close to your heart. Remember that I have entrusted you with a great task. Have mercy on them as I am merciful to you.

Do not be judges, blessed people, for verily I say to you, "You know nothing of what is happening in the present world, only I know it; for you see and judge things according to your intellect. But behind everything that has happened is my hand, there is my justice, my divine advice from the beginning of eternity is my divine advice that has no beginning. So what can you judge and what can you know? In the bosom of this (German) people there are many seeds of Israel, a great seed of Judah, the tribe that took up arms for the first time to attack a breach for the people of Israel, to open a road to Canaan. Now he took up arms to pave the way before the world. But I have taken him down, and have stopped him, and have said to him, Not because ye bear the sword of Judah, can ye show yourselves arrogant in the world. Reflect and persevere, for I will raise you up, who have always believed in Me. I will give you your bread, your house. I will make you like the other nations, and they will make you like you. No one will be worth less, no one will be worth more. The time will come, and the last will be the first again by his humility. Therefore I say to you: listen only to my word, understand it and keep your lips silent. But you, My beloved children of mine (that is, the German listeners), come to your Savior, not to your Judge. Your prayer is like a burnt offering, like a fragrant essence ascended to the height of My Throne. Day after day and night after night, your spirit has been like a guardian of your people, of your nation. Oh, if only My people of Israel of this nation (Mexico) would fulfill their spiritual duty as you do — how far I could have progressed! But, therefore, do not be vain, continue fulfilling your task and have that zeal, that love and respect for each other also in the future, because you do not know the hour when my hand sends you. I will prepare the way, and you will go forward.

I have already entrusted you to Joseph (head of the congregation) before and once again I am sending you to him. Why? that I may prepare you as a Messenger for my Trinitarian and Marian Work that appeared in this Third Time in this Mexican Nation, and that I may send you with this mark, this Work, this Love, this zeal and this Law, and that when you are in distant nations, you may contact my Son José and he may sound with joy the pleasant bell of your heart and sing Hosanna because the seed has been sown in a foreign land and the time will come when my word will be proclaimed in that country. When will this moment come? When you have safely progressed and have received my teachings. Always remain in contact with My people (meaning first of all the congregation in Mexico), keep meekness and humility. At this moment I make you feel the warmth of my return again. Stay healthy and healthy. Do not be afraid, through you thousands and thousands will receive my blessing, not only from your nation. Ask me not only for them, ask me for everyone. At this moment I grant your spirit a higher stage of development and I elevate the spirit of your guardian angel to a higher sphere of spirit, those spirits full of power that I have prepared for you. Those protectors will also be with you, here and in that nation.

Do not worry, My children, only the bad and the weeds will be uprooted. I will spare the wheat, I will preserve the good plants, and I will take advantage of them, and they will bear fruit. When? When you are ready to take care of them, because this is my will. Take My power, receive My peace and wait in vigil and prayer. Continue to be united with My son Joseph so that when the time comes, under his command, you will fulfill your task in full obedience according to My will.

What do you ask of me for those places (in your homeland)? Yes, it is really the same thing that you have already asked me so many times: peace, forgiveness, healing balm and justice, and in truth I tell you: I who am divine justice, love, the balm, the perfect ear, at this moment I draw men closer to Me and cover them with My hand, I bring them on My bosom and let the blood flow from My side that is the balm, to scourge the sick.

Spirits who look at these intercessors from beyond - see how much they have achieved and still achieve. Receive the light, O Spiritual World, I remove the shadows, the chains and the blood. I fill you with peace in My Name, who am Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Continue in the vigil, my dear my children, wait in the suffering; in the end you will be full of rejoicing. You will come to me crying again, but then I will tell you: take the pain out of your heart and realize that I am life and I will put you in (real) life because this is my will.

Set out on your way, take up the cross on yourselves and follow me, my beloved children.

As for the words of the Lord.

Eleven years ago, when the time came when I wanted to leave my professional job in Mexico, I returned to Germany. Soon after I started translating the first volume into German with my friend Traugott Göltenboth, so that the revelations would be accessible to the German-speaking people. The first volume has been translated for a long time and was published some time ago by Otto Reichl Verlag, Germany, under the title: "Buch des Wahren Lebens" (Book of True Life). Now the second volume is finished, and we hope that he will also find his way into the hearts of German spiritual brothers and sisters.

5. An Account of the Life of a Spokesperson

No one else will be able to express better and more convincingly the deep feeling and experience of his inner and outer personal transformation than a direct contemporary witness who for many years was a spokesman for the Divine Revelations in Mexico:

I had just finished my 21 years of life. For years I had been tied to my house as a victim of a very annoying skin disease, which prevented me from enjoying the benefits of the sun or fresh air even for a few moments.

In those years of solitude, which seemed to me an eternity, all the more so when I was at the dawn of youth, where people chase the most vain dreams, I suffered a not slight crisis of impatience and despair. I must confess that only the benevolent generosity of my parents and brothers provided me with moral support in this ordeal, in addition to the quiet hope of recovering my health someday.

Many doctors took care of my case and subjected me to countless treatments, all without success. I just remember that after each failure, my hopelessness grew.

As my isolation, silence and loneliness became more unbearable every day, I fled to prayer and realized that my spirit found an unspeakable peace in it, and that in my heart there was a sense of anticipation that I would soon be released from my imprisonment.

My prayers grew more and more, and my spiritual concentration became deeper and deeper. I tried to meditate as often as possible, because as long as the prayer lasted, I remained relieved of all suffering. When the bliss ended and I fell back into the reality of my lonely, silent and homogeneous life, I always felt as if I had come from another world in which my spirit had been strengthened and inspired. Here I have to mention the fact that I formed my sentences from unthought instant ideas. I will never forget how I lost the concept of time during such raptures, and there were times when everything around me disappeared. However, I remember that in my childhood - around the age of 12 — without being able to explain this, almost daily I was in a kind of detachment from the soul, which lasted for several minutes, during which I had to act like an automatic machine, perhaps guided by the subconscious mind. There has never been any difficulty while this strange state lasted. Curiously, at first it scared me, but little by little I got to know it as the phenomenon intensified over time.

My illness reached its peak. Sometimes I felt as if my skin was burning under the effect of an internal fire, which could be moistened with anything. At the same time, my appearance became more and more deplorable.

One day, my Father appeared with the news that he heard the word of the divine Teacher from the mouth of a simple man, certainly chosen by God. In a poor assembly area in a remote part of Mexico. A good friend, who had long admired such revelations, had taken him away.

For a moment I was certain that it was He, the Teacher, who spoke with the help of human perception to approach men, seeking those who were hungry for light and thirsty for justice.

The miracle I was waiting for day after day was before me. He, with whom I had spoken so many times in my hours of pain, was now very close to me and was waiting for me to heal my body and soul.

I followed the call of the Lord! It was on Sunday, February 14, 1934, that I first entered that modest meeting room, one of the many where the divine message was heard. I was particularly impressed by the conversion and the deep concentration with which those present prepared to await the coming of the "divine ray", which was to inspire the inner ear of the "spokesman", who was to transmit the heavenly word.

The spokesperson or instrument was a woman on that occasion. A simple woman of, one might say, ordinary appearance and blind from birth. I must confess that her appearance did not make a particularly pleasant impression on me. All the more amazement, then, when his lips opened and let a sermon be heard of such depth, as wonderful and as wise as can hardly be imagined, interpreted with a sweet voice and full of a surprising intonation, which gave the message a deeply impressive and touching accent.

In the further course of the revelation, those present in the presence of the spokesman completely forgot and rose to the regions of the Spirit and fully enjoy the divine instruction. But if, during the revelation, someone accidentally opened his eyes and looked at the spokesman, he could notice how that miserable and ordinary being had been transfigured in the elevation of his sense, yes, how at such moments great beauty and imposing majesty radiated from him.

The divine word poured from his lips like an inexhaustible wave, an hour, two hours, three hours and more. All this came without getting stuck, without interruptions, without errors, without signs of fatigue and without the voice becoming hoarse or brittle. On the contrary, the longer the instruction lasted, the more inspiration seemed to increase perfection.

The presence of the Divine Master was felt so strongly in those moments of communication that his closeness and friendship felt very tangible. He spoke to all hearts! He read the most hidden thoughts of those present and touched the secret fibers of his listeners without hurting or accusing anyone. Each one felt in his heart what words of the Teacher's restless gaze, of love and wisdom, were addressed to him.

The divine message took on different shades and colors on the lips of the spokesman. When the Lord spoke as a Father, the voice communicated tenderness, forgiveness and love; when he proclaimed himself as a Teacher, it became deep and wise; and when he brought out the Judge, the voice of the spokesman received the tone of infinite authority and power, in which justice and divine zeal could be heard in such an impressive way that it really struck the listeners with devastation and blackmailed them with tears of repentance, and allowed them to make firm intentions of conversion and reparation.

I felt very small in front of so much greatness and like the last of those gathered. In my ignorance I thought that the Lord had certainly not noticed my insignificant presence. But soon I had to convince myself of my mistake and learn that the Teacher's gaze discovered everyone. After several months of frequent visits, with which I had no other purpose than to enjoy this spiritual feast, I was called by the Lord on an unforgettable afternoon. It was August 9, 1934, when I was marked and anointed to serve the divine word as a spokesman without leaving my amazement.

The deepest movement, the noblest and most abysmal feelings touched my heart at that highest moment. What could I refuse to deny to those who have an unrestricted right over their creatures at this sublime moment?

My fate was predetermined. Since that day I have lived nothing but to dedicate my life to such a difficult and delicate ministry.

A few months of preparation, which at the same time brought with it my complete physical recovery, served for training as a spokesman for the divine Master, to whom I have dedicated myself with body and soul since that hour, until December 31, 1950, when the light of the Deity ceased to manifest itself in this form.

If we, who were the torch bearers, wanted to relate the experiences, impressions and experiences we had in those years of unforgettable struggle against the crowds of the different meeting places scattered throughout our country, we would have to fill entire volumes, because our career was an uninterrupted succession of wonderful events, and it would be impossible to count them within the confined space.

But it is extremely important to emphasize that we had no other book for our preparation than the word that came from our lips. Because there must be no interference in our minds, so that we can receive the divine message as faithfully as possible. If we remained humble, the Lord distinguished us in love and well-being before His people. But once we let ourselves be dominated by vanity or selfishness, He touched us with His justice by withdrawing His inspiration from us for some time to show us that without Him we can do nothing, because without Him we are nothing.

Since the last communication from the Master at the end of 1950, I have never again felt any of the strange sensations that I carried in my being, year after year, during the exercise of the mission as a spokesman.

From that day on, a large number of brothers dedicated themselves to the task of collecting as many as possible of the teachings and revelations that the Lord had given us, which fortunately had been written down. From them a book was compiled that must be made accessible to the general public, and which is the source so far from which humanity can drink of the water of truth that the Master has left to the peoples of this and the future as a gift of love, light, justice and peace.

I was asked to give a testimony, that I did not deserve to be a spokesman for the Master during his teachings in this form, and I have tried to do it with these words. I did it with all the sincerity of which I am capable, with the fervent desire to serve and achieve this testimony as an incentive, to awaken trust and faith in those who take this book in their hands, containing messages that the divine Master to humanity of that time revealed in his goodness through mediators as simple as unworthy.

At the same time, I send a fraternal greeting in the name of the Lord to my brothers and sisters in Germany, whose wonderful spiritual awakening of the Master indicated to us through his human mediators.

6. Spiritualism, Religion, Life on Earth, the Afterlife

In the following original excerpts the Lord gives us an idea of some important topics:

Today I return to the men in the midst of the rumors of war, of the events and signs with which I predicted my arrival to you; however, the men have not felt me.

In the midst of this silence, of this humility, in this corner of the earth I am making my word vibrate through the human understanding, calling men, awakening them to a new life, regenerating them with my persuasive and sweet teaching, awakening in them their dormant gifts, to raise them on the roads to imitate their Teacher.

I must tell you that at this time I found you involved in greater religious or idolatrous fanaticism than in any of the past, and at the same time your spirit more naked of virtues than ever. Now I ask you: After having listened to me for years and years through this communication, who feels that I have come to destroy his principles? Who thinks they feel confused or see their Christian faith destroyed? Verily I say to you, what I revealed to you in the earliest times, I have come to remind you, because you had forgotten or distorted it. That what men had hidden from you, I have come to bring to light and what I was keeping in my arcanum, I have come to reveal to you. This era is one of spiritual freedom; men are enlightened by conscience and will know how to choose the right path. (188, 33-35)

Do not confuse this communication with that which men freely make at their own will, inspired some by science, others by curiosity and others by superstitions. (188, 45)

I, the Father, have rejected no one from my bosom of love and forgiveness, not even those who have allowed themselves to be touched by temptation and have fallen into the abyss. I haven't abandoned anyone. There are no helpless beings on earth or in the spiritual valley, which of you could be thrown out of my lap, no matter how sinful and unworthy he was to receive my charity? I live in the heart of the inveterate sinner who has not been able to receive the light of my Divine Spirit because he has not heeded the call made to him by the voice of his conscience. Do you think that by his chain of wickedness I have turned away from him? No, really. I am the Father of all creatures, without distinguishing any, of my children. I am love and as a loving Father I do not neglect anyone, my people.

It is up to you to pray for the lost one, to ask that the light of my Spirit enlighten his spirit, so that he awakens, breaks the bonds of temptation and separates the darkness that has blinded him. (206, 36-37)

The good sowers of spiritualism will never be distinguished by anything external or material. There will be no habits, no insignia, no special way of speaking in them. Everything will be simplicity and humility in their actions; however, if they are distinguished for something, it will be for their charity and their spirituality.

The true preachers of spiritualism will not be notable for the floridness of their language, but for the wisdom and simplicity of their word, but above all for the truth of their works and goodness of their life.

Remember that I on earth did not need the beautiful external language to captivate the hearts of the multitudes, but I knew how to reach them with love, with truth, with balm and wisdom. That is the example that I want you to take into account and imitate.

Nor do I want you to enclose your worship in material enclosures, because you will imprison your spirit and you will not let it open its wings, to conquer eternity.

The altar that I leave for you to celebrate in it the worship that I hope for is life, without any limitation, beyond all religions, all churches and sects, because it exists in the spiritual, in the eternal, in the divine. (194, 24-28)

I have allowed religions to exist on earth, which are for the spirit paths that lead to God. Every religion that teaches goodness and love and exalts charity is good, because it contains the light of truth. When within them men degenerate and turn into evil what was good in the beginning, then the path is lost between materialism and sin.

That is why I come at this time to show you again my coming, which is the way, the essence and the law, so that you may seek this law, which is a beacon and a star, beyond forms and rites, beyond everything human. The one who seeks me in this way will be a spiritualist. (197, 10-11)

The unification of religions will be, when the spirit of humanity rises above materialism, traditions, prejudices and fanaticism; then men will have united spiritually in a single cult: The good for the love of God and neighbor. When this is the case, humanity will enter a period of perfection. That is why I ask you to show my work through good and pure acts. Do not worry about not getting to contemplate the realization of all this; but you will achieve the satisfaction of having contributed with your sowing to the establishment of the kingdom of peace, a sowing that will bear fruit in the hearts of the generations of tomorrow. (187, 43)

I have told you that the time will come when light will spring up in all places, in all countries, on all continents; that light will shine according to the spiritual preparation of man; but through it a new and more accurate idea of creation will be formed, a new stage of spiritual evolution. (200, 41)

When you understand that you have come to this world to gather experiences and to put into practice the divine Law of love and charity for your fellow human beings, you will have penetrated into the harmony of this life; you already know from my revelations that whoever does not obey my Law will have to return to this world. (228, 54)

There is in you a part of matter that is from the earth, and a spiritual part that is from heaven. There is a time when man feels matter and a time when he feels spirit. When you leave this matter and move on to the spiritual state, you will understand what you have not understood now. Your body will remain here, because it belongs to the Earth, but your spirit will fly to high regions where you will continue to live to continue your spiritual evolution. (228, 69)

Spirits are on different rungs of the ladder, but I love them all equally and give them the means to reach the top. In the same way you must love your brothers, regardless of the degree of spiritual elevation they possess. (223, 72)

The Kingdom of the Spirit is infinite and to reach the elevation that allows you to enjoy and live it, it is necessary to know the way and have light to ascend through it; but do not think that I despise your material life, no, disciples, why should I despise it, if I prepared it for you? Understand that life in the material world is also part of life in the spiritual Realm, infinite and eternal. (223, 26)

If you could transform this Earth, from a valley of tears into a world of happiness, where you love each other, where you care about practicing the good and living within my Law, in truth I tell you that this life would be before Me, even more meritorious and higher than an existence of suffering, vicissitudes and tears no matter how much you have to suffer it. When will you come to unite the spiritual life with the human life, in such a way that you do not see limits between one and the other? When will you make of your existence, a single life, turning away the idea of death, to penetrate into eternity? That light will be in men until spirituality flourishes in the world. (219, 16)

The time will come when the borders of this world will be erased by love and when the worlds will draw closer to each other by spirituality. (213, 61)

7. Summary of the Divine Teachings with the Words of the Lord

Certain essential themes run as a common thread through the entire work of the revelation "Book of True Life". Below are some original excerpts that can serve as a guide and overview for the reader.

The Second Coming of Christ

No one should be surprised by my new message and the meaning of my Word, because the prophets of the First Time, like Christ in the Second Time, announced with great clarity the era that you are living today. (279, 9)

My love lesson did not come intended for a few who have heard it through the spokespeople. My message has reached the world to be known by all men, so I tell you that it will come in many forms, to the ends of the Earth, because it is the beginning of the consolation promised to humanity, from the Second Time, for when it would reach the culmination of the times of affliction on Earth. (282, 57)

I had to come before your immense need for light, light that means wisdom, love, elevation. In order to give you this light, it was not convenient for Me to present Myself as a man before you, because in order to induce you to spirituality it was necessary that I manifest my presence in a spiritual form, invisible and yet sensitive to your faith and love. (293, 57-58)

When this word spreads throughout the world and men ask who inspired it and who dictated it to be written, the emissaries and sowers of it will testify that it was the Holy Spirit who revealed it through the prepared understanding of his spokesmen. (295, 26)

The Third Time

The First Time is like the spiritual childhood of man in which he opens his eyes and contemplates the face of his Father, listens to him but is far from understanding him, proof of this is that he tried to obey him by sticking to the letter of the texts, without penetrating with the spirit in the meaning of them.

In the Second Time I, the Word, came to dwell in Jesus with you and to teach you with my life the way of the Spirit. That Second Time is that of adolescence or the first spiritual youth, it is the age in which Christ came to teach men love, to awaken their sleeping fibers so that their heart vibrated under a new feeling, under the powerful impulse of love for his Father and for his fellow men.

This is the Third Time in which the spirit of humanity will have to free itself from the chains of materialism, that will bring with it the greatest struggle of ideas recorded in the history of men. (295, 56-57+64)

This Third Time, in which human evil has reached its greatest height, will, however, be a time of reconciliation and forgiveness. (305, 12)

The Sixth Seal

The Sixth Seal has been untied and has shown part of its content to you, the precursors of spirituality on Earth; but he will continue to pour out his light on all men, even if this word that you are hearing today has already ceased. (284, 46)

For now, I receive these multitudes on behalf of humanity, and when I refer to humanity I am not only talking about the men of the present, but about all the generations that through six spiritual stages have inhabited the Earth. The messages that I have given you in those six times are precisely what I have symbolized with the name of "seals", which as you already know, one is missing to be untied, so that he reveals to you the meaning or meaning of all the others, that high meaning of the life of the spirit, of evolution and perfection. (303, 52)

The People of Israel and the Spiritual Mission

The People of God will arise once again among humanity, not a people personified in a race, but a multitude, a legion of my disciples in whom blood, race or language do not predominate, but the spirit.

This people will not concretize to teach, my Doctrine through the letter; for the words to have life, it is necessary to live them; this people will not only be propagators of writings and books, but also of examples and facts. (292, 28-29)

It is necessary that this people, to whom these revelations have been entrusted, rise up bearing witness, because with this men will awaken and will be able to perceive the signs and spiritual manifestations proper to this time. (277, 15)

A world of spirits is just waiting for the time to come and inhabit this valley. They are beings of light who will not disdain to come to incarnate in the bosom of the backward peoples, because their mission will be precisely that of awakening those who sleep. (288, 46)

Spirit and Soul

Man is a reflection of the Creator, an image of God, necessarily the children will have to resemble the Father from whom they sprang; that similarity is in the spirit for being endowed with the attributes of God and also having eternal life; matter, that is, the human body is only a fleeting garment of the spirit. (295, 44)

The human spirit is the one who should walk in front of how many works man performs, because he is the one who has been entrusted with life on Earth, however, there in your world you do because the spirit neglects its highest missions, to consecrate it to earthly ideals and envelop it more and more in the vertigo of that life that you have created. (305, 7)

The Spiritual Prayer

You have been traveling a thorny path and in every sorrow you have you hear the voice of conscience that tells you that you are still far from fulfilling the Law of your Father and that is why you falter. The spirit retains the intuition of having left the Creator's womb a long time ago and knowing that he still has a long way to go to return to the starting point, he gives himself up to prayer, because he knows that at least at that moment he can communicate with his Father. The spirit knows that in prayer he finds a consolation that caresses, comforts and heals him.

I bless those who pray, the more spiritual their prayer is, the greater the peace I make them feel, this you can easily explain, because he who to pray needs to prostrate himself in front of images or objects to feel the presence of the divine, will not be able to experience the spiritual sensation of the presence of the Father in his heart. (279, 1-2)

Instead, see how easily one is transformed who puts into practice an atom of my teaching. Do you want an example? The one who all his life was telling me that he loved me through verbal prayers that others formed, prayers that he did not even understand, because they were made with words whose meaning he did not know; but suddenly he knew what the true way of praying was and putting aside his old habits, concentrated in the depths of his spirit, raised his thoughts to God, and for the first time he felt that presence. She did not know what to say to her Lord, her chest began to sob and her eyes to shed tears. In his mind only a phrase was formed that said: "My Father, what can I tell you, if I don't know how to talk to you?" But those tears, those sobs, that inner joy as beautiful as you can never find it in your human languages or in your books.

Those babbles of the man who begins to pray spiritually with his Lord, sister, similar to the first words of children, which are delight and charm for their parents, because they hear the first expressions of their being that begins to rise to life. (281, 23-24)

The Perfect Spiritual Communication

After 1950, I will stop speaking to you in this language, I will speak to you in a higher, higher language, which you will gradually get to know; in that language in which there is no need for material words. You are the spiritualist people, the one who has received my teaching at this time, that is why I ask you for spirituality, so that your spirit can manifest itself and not find any disturbance in its passage, in its prayer, or in its spiritual acts, but that it be free on the way and can come to Me. I have told you a lot about spiritual communication, I have told you that you will come to practice it in a high way and you are going after this desire. (291, 81)

When this Doctrine spreads, they will have to ask you the object of this message, since there are already so many religions. Then you will reveal to them that this word has come to humanity to teach men the spirit-to-Spirit communication that their religions do not teach them, and that this message is the divine light that reveals to you all the spiritual attributes that you possess. (294, 44)

Practice spirit-to-Spirit communication, which you will be perfecting more and more every day, because this is my will that you communicate with me, you and humanity. Through this communication you will receive my inspirations, my commands and I will receive your spirit, I will listen to your prayer and I will let your spiritual arms embrace me. (304, 51)

This communication has been the stepping stone that has made you climb one step further on the path, which is bringing you closer to perfect communication. (278, 44)

Acceptance and Rejection of Divine Instructions

How many there are who from the writings of past times know the prophecies that announced this Era, and yet, if they witnessed my manifestations, they would not give them credit, nor would they take them as the fulfillment of those promises! They are those who have not reached the degree of advancement that allows them to contemplate this light. On the other hand, how many of those who today would give their lives testifying that it is I who communicates with men at this time, were not even aware that there were prophecies that spoke of these events. It is that his spirit was already prepared and in time to receive the light. (298, 19)

These multitudes are made up of believers and unbelievers, but they are all spirits hungry for love, thirsty for light and truth while those who have faith are fed and strengthened, unbelievers despise the bread of eternal life and have to endure their hunger and thirst. They are spirits confused by a life of materialism, ignorance and fanaticism that they cannot forget, in order to contemplate and feel my presence; they are hearts afraid of the judgments of humanity; How are you going to be able to concentrate on the height of your spirit to feel my essence, when you are thinking about what others will say about you? They will come out saying that my presence in these places is not true, when the reality is that they are the ones who, being present, have not been with me, because their spirit has stayed where their thoughts, their interests, their concerns and their passions have tied them. If I have come, I have been with you, for I am always thinking of those who need me, of those who pour out the cup of bitterness and eat the bread of slavery and humiliation. (301, 2)

The Meaning of the Tests

Sometimes your peace turns into struggle, worries or capsizing; it is when the hurricane hits the fields and orchards, shaking the trees and defoliating the flowers. So you ask what is the point of those tests. And I tell you that the whirlwind causes the bad fruits and the dry leaves to fall from the trees, and throws out of the garden everything that should not exist in its bosom. (278, 31)

You have traveled the long way of experience; that innocence, which is blindness and ignorance, has disappeared by acquiring the light of experience. Moreover, you have soiled yourselves and that is what trials and pain are for, to wash you and purify you. (301, 24)

Spiritual Inspirations for all

People: know that not only you are in time to be able to receive spiritual messages and inspirations; there are many men in the world who, without knowing that I am pouring out my word through these spokespersons, sense the proximity of a light ready to overflow in revelations about humanity. They will receive from my Spirit the preparation, so that when they hear your testimony and transmit my divine message to them, they will say with joy: "This is what I expected." (283, 51)

Spiritual Harmony among all

Goodness and love, from which charity and peace are derived, will be the keys that open the doors of the mystery, thus giving men a step towards universal harmony. (292, 5)

The spiritual harmony between all beings will reveal great knowledge to you, will provide you with the spirit-to-Spirit communication that will shorten distances, bring the absent closer and erase borders and limits. (286, 3)

I am the Father who works so that harmony may reign among all his children, both among those who inhabit the Earth and those who dwell in other worlds. (286, 2)

The Spiritual Awakening

This humanity, after living in disunity for so many centuries, after all the painful and bitter experiences it has had, is able to understand that the union between all peoples, the harmony between all men, will not be able to be based on material interests, nor take strength in earthly values. At last he will understand that only the high spirit can be the firm foundation, the unshakable stone on which the peace of men rests. (289, 3)

I speak to you this way, because no one knows the evolution of your spirit better than I do and I know that this humanity, despite its great materialism, its love for the world and its passions developed to the maximum of sin, only in appearance lives clinging to the flesh and material life. I know that as soon as he feels the loving touch of my love in his spirit, he will come quickly to Me to throw off his burden and follow me on the path of truth that, without realizing it, he wants to travel a lot, (305, 36)

Charity

The first step towards the regeneration of men, so that they reach a state of spiritual elevation, is charity. Charity to the spirit, charity to the body, charity to fellow men. Moreover, I must tell you that this feeling has not been properly interpreted. Charity is a name that you give to certain actions that you carry out, which in most cases, do not carry in their background piety or a true intention to alleviate a need. (287, 31)

Why, if I look at hospitals, prisons, homes in mourning, broken marriages, orphans or those hungry for the spirit, do I not find you there? Think that in addition to teaching you to pray, I have given you the gift of the word and I have taught you to anoint and on many occasions I have told you that your presence can work wonders if you are truly prepared. (306, 27)

Roque Rojas, the forerunner, wrote inspired by the spirit of Elias, this phrase: "Charity and more charity with your brothers and you will see my Father in all his splendor". There is truth and light in these words, disciples, because whoever does not practice charity in his life will never enter my Kingdom. On the contrary, I assure you that through charity the hardest and most inveterate sinner will be able to be saved. (308, 52)

Reincarnation and Spiritual Evolution

Jacob, revealed to you with his dream the existence of the spiritual ladder by which beings ascended and descended without ceasing. Who has understood its content? Who has solved his mystery? There, in the sense of that figure contemplated by the patriarch, is the evolution of spirits, the incessant reincarnation of spiritual creatures in men, the restitution and atonement of beings, the communication of God with man and the communication of spirit to Spirit. (287, 59)

In this Third Time, I have brought you the confirmation of the reincarnation of the spirit. Humanity through the ages, has had this intuition and the spirit has been revealing this mystery to the flesh, but this always incredulous and fragile, has put it in doubt. Beings from beyond have come to deliver this revelation to men and have only been believed by some, but these have been fought in their beliefs and repudiated by the ignorant and unbelievers, but today the presentiment, the certainty of these manifestations throbs more than ever among humanity, although not everyone dares to confess it, out of fear of the outside world.; but I have come at this time to bring you confirmation and to tell you: In the reincarnation of the spirit my perfect Law of love is manifested and truly I tell you: How few there are who have only once come to incarnate on Earth, and how many opportunities I have given the spirits through different matters in the world, to restore what the spirits had done wrong, but your matter is a thick veil that prevents you from discovering the bottom of these teachings. (309, 22)

The Beyond

The life of the spirit, which exists beyond your material world, could not and should not be a mystery to man. The Father, contemplating your need to know, began his lesson through the gift of revelation and inspiration, manifesting himself in infinite forms. Moreover, that lesson began since the first man existed and has not ceased until the present. (289, 17)

Alert, people! The afterlife is watching your steps on Earth! The worlds know of your works! When they see this humanity drowning in the sea of their hatreds and passions, they are moved and pray for you. (298, 41)

In order for the faith of humanity to be affirmed in the knowledge of spiritual existence, beyond material life, in the past times some manifestations of envoys of the Father were granted to you, to whom you gave the name of angels. Those first manifestations were followed by some works that I, through Jesus, carried out to make you penetrate a little more into the Arcanum. Of these

I will remind you: The presence of beings of light announcing my advent to Earth, the influence of troubled spirits exerted on human beings, called possessed; the detachment of the spirit from his body and his return to him, shown by Me at the instant of the transfiguration; and the materialization of beings who have not risen to his true kingdom, because they are enveloped by the darkness of ignorance, like those who manifested themselves in Jerusalem on the day of my crucifixion. (301, 10)

Also do not think that you are working alone in this work, because you do not yet have the necessary strength to carry out works of such spiritual importance. It is necessary for you to know that there are beings who are pointing out to you the path that you should follow and are preparing the path and the places where you will have to take the seed, those precursors are your brothers from other worlds, from other abodes, from which they watch your steps and open a gap for you, because they are also laborers of peace, of love, of fraternity, they are spirits of greater purity than yours, of greater knowledge and experience, you can fear nothing bad from them. They are the ones who do not let you park, the ones who put restlessness in your heart when you abandon the planting. (297, 6)

The Law and the Power of Love

The law of love, from which charity, understanding and forgiveness towards your brothers derive, is the foundation that I have inspired you for your spiritual mission. (291, 8)

Let it not be fear that guides your steps or that forces you to fulfill the Law, let it be faith and love, the force that impels you to perform good deeds in your life, because then your merits will be true. (305, 51)

Peace, the Highest Treasure

It is my word that comes to give calm to your heart and peace to your spirit. The greatest thing that I have destined for him is peace, whoever possesses that treasure, has everything, whoever knows that spiritual state, would not change it for the greatest passions or treasures on Earth.

If you ask me what is the secret to achieving and preserving peace, I tell you that the secret consists in doing the will of your Father; and if you ask me how the divine will is fulfilled, I would answer that by applying my Law and my Doctrine to your life. (307, 1-2)

The Voice of Conscience

Be intimate with the conscience, it is the friendly voice, through which the Lord his light appears, already as a Father, already as a Teacher, already as a Judge. (293, 74)

See how man is before and above all that surrounds him; that he is the only being endowed with free will and conscience. From that free will all the errors, falls and sins of humanity have come; but they are temporary errors before the justice and eternity of the Creator, because then consciousness will be imposed on the weaknesses of matter and on the weakness of the spirit, with it will come the triumph of light, which is knowledge over darkness, which are ignorance; it will be the triumph of good, which is love, justice and harmony, over evil, which is selfishness, debauchery, injustice. (295, 49)

Spiritual Liberation

Useless and vain will be the efforts that religions make to keep their faithful in the routine of ancient beliefs and out-of-time methods, because no one will be able to stop the divine light that penetrates to the bottom of the understandings, awakening the spirit to an Era of revelations, of divine confidences, of clarifications of doubts and mysteries, of spiritual liberation.

Nor will anyone be able to stop the torrent that humanity will have to form when it rises up in pursuit of its freedom of thought, spirit and faith.

No one believes that I have come to snatch away their adherents, faithful or followers of the different religions, no, but the time has come when a new time makes its entrance, removing forgotten lessons, erasing useless customs, beliefs and traditions, purifying and stripping the spirit of all falsehood, to give him the true bread of the spirit that has always been changed by the rite, (290, 58-60)

For how many of you who have listened to my word at this time, the day of your liberation was precisely the one on which you first heard this voice, with how much love you have engraved in your memory the blessed date that reminds you of the miracle of your resurrection to faith! (294, 24)
